Dear Shirley,

I has been so long since I heard from you.....Hope everything is okay.

I have just read a book that made me think of you again, a book I think may interest you because of Nancy Perrin Rich's testimony.

It is "Devil To Pay", by Robin Moore, that stalwart defender of the lower-echelon CIA types (meaning one who opposes the CIA as too moderate). Aside from being a successful businessman (airline operator in the Caribbean) and the author of "Green Berets" and "Company Team", he is also himself involved in anti-Castro activities and with anti-Castro types.

"Devil" is about Jack (Walter A.) Youngblood, mercenary, pilot, gun-runner, a man who worked with Castroand then turned against him, a man who quit the business temporarily when the CIA made flying hot but did it with the longing to become involved in a plot to murder Castro, and who hated him for many xx reasons, not the least of which is his belief that Castro owes him about a quarter of a million U.S.dollars. He is quite a hero!

Avon has the book out in a reprint now. It is generally available. I wonder if this Youngblood is the one in Nancy's story?

The latest address I have for him is Texarkana, Texas.

Do let me hear that you are well.

Sincerely,

Please note that we have moved.
